Re: 11-CV 0054-LG

Findings

After a review of the case in its totality, I believe the below listed violations of David Marquar's civil rights occurred:

Discussion

David Marquar was hosting a Super Bowl Party at his residence and the following occurred:

- 1 Officer Allen entered property at 600 Turner Street, Waveland, Mississippi neither without a search warrant, nor with any exception to the warrant, on an alleged misdemeanor crime at best.

- 2 Officer Allen violated the principles of Graham V Connor with his use of force against Mr. Marquar.

CONCLUSION

With the information gathered to date, I have reached the following conclusions:

1 Officer Chris Allen use of the Taser on Mr. Marquar was unreasonable and does not follow the principals established in Graham v. Connor, 490 U.S. 386, 104 L.Ed.2d 443, 109 S.Ct. 1865 (1989). “[A]ll claims that law enforcement officers have used excessive force--deadly or not--in the course of an arrest, investigatory stop, or other ‘seizure’ of a free citizen should be analyzed under the Fourth Amendment and its ‘reasonableness’ standard. 490 U.S. at 395. Factors:

- (1) Scope of the intrusion (degree and extent of force used).
- (2) Manner of intrusion (type of force used).
- (3) Place where intrusion occurred (where force was used).
- (4) Need to perform official duties (task officer was performing when force was used).
- (5) Justification for intrusion (why force was used, weighed against governmental interest at stake).
- (6) Severity of the crime involved.
- (7) Whether suspect was immediate threat to officers or others.
- (8) Whether suspect actively resisted.
- (9) Whether suspect tried to evade arrest by fleeing.
- (10) Other facts and circumstances relevant to the situation and the force decision (totality of the circumstances).

4TH FOURTH AMENDMENT

All uses of force are considered "seizures" and are analyzed by courts under the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution. The Fourth Amendment provides:

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

Although the Fourth Amendment technically limits the power of the federal government, it is applied against state actors through the due process clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. Mapp v. Ohio, 367 U.S. 643, 655, 81 S.Ct. 1684, 6 L.Ed.2d 1081 (1961)

An individual is 'seized' when an officer restrains his freedom, even if the detention is brief and falls short of arrest. The Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments prohibit unreasonable seizures as well as searches. United States v. Brignoni-Ponce, 422 U.S. 873, 878, 95 S.Ct. 2574, 45

1 (a) Officer Chris Allen use of the Taser and physical force on Mr. Marquar violated his Fourth Amendment rights.

2 Officer Chris Allen use of the Taser is outside the principles, model policies and training of IACP and PERF.

3 Officer Chris Allen use of the Taser does not follow the principals of current trainings in the field.

4 Officer Chris Allen use of the Taser does not follow the principals and recommendations of the manufacture.

5 Officer Chris Allen use of hands on control does not follow the principals of current trainings and is not reasonable and is a violation of Graham v. Connor, 490 U.S. 386, 104 L.Ed.2d 443, 109 S.Ct. 1865 (1989).

Respectfully Submitted,

Dean J. McWilliams

Conclusion

There were clear fourth amendment violations conducted by Officer Clay Chris Allen.
